

Membership in AACE International helps your employees stay informed about the complexities of the total cost management profession—plus gain knowledge, find access to networks, and obtain resources that will help them solve complex problems they might face within their department.

AACE International's Corporate & Organizational Membership Program (COMP) identifies your company as a leader in the industry—a company that is committed to professional staff development.

Whether your interest is in the cultivation of business-to-business contacts, professional development of your staff, or becoming involved in the development of industry practices, AACE's COMP empowers your business. The COMP is designed to ensure a tangible return on your investment while offering leadership and affordable education opportunities for your staff.

AACE's COMP is a comprehensive package of benefits designed to encourage companies to develop the skills of their cost management employees through AACE membership.

COMP Membership Benefits

- Cost Engineering Journal & Source - AACE's bi-monthly electronic magazines
- AACE News – AACE's monthly electronic newsletter
- TCM Today – our series of professional development webinars

Discounted fees for:

- Annual Meeting registration—over 100 hours of presentations to showcase the best and most current tools and techniques used in industry today covering a wide range of programs
- Continuing Education Seminars—a collection of education seminars held before and after our Annual meeting
- Certification & Recertification—a portfolio of 8 distinct certifications for technician, professional and expertise levels
- AACE's Online Learning Center – a series of professional development presentations featuring some of the most popular presentations and presenters from past Annual Meetings

Members-only access to:

- AACE's body of knowledge – the Total Cost Management Framework including Visual TCM which graphically demonstrates the integration of the strategic asset management and project controls process maps of the TCM Framework
- AACE's Virtual Library – a collection of over 5,000 technical articles on practically every aspect of total cost management
- AACE's Recommended Practices – a series of consensus documents on numerous technical topics, that have been subject to a rigorous review process and have been recommended for use by the AACE Technical Board

COMP Membership Details

- Calendar year (Jan 1—Dec 31)
- US$95 one-time application fee
- US$1,600 Base fee—prorated quarterly (base of 10 members)
- US$160 discounted membership fee—prorated quarterly (for each member beyond 10)
- US$10 individual new-member application fee is waived
- Standing listing in Source magazine, AACE's electronic periodical distributed to over 50,000 professionals worldwide

Sign-up on our website

AACE International is a 501(c)(3) non-profit professional association. Since 1956, AACE International has provided its members with the resources they need to enhance their performance and ensure continued growth and success. With over 8,500 members world-wide, AACE International serves cost management professionals in the disciplines of project management, estimating, risk management, and claims. AACE International has members in 100 countries and over 80 local sections.

AACE has been certifying individuals since 1976. AACE offers the following certifications: Certified Cost Professional (CCP), Certified Estimating Professional (CEP), Certified Forensic Claims Consultant (CFCC), Certified Scheduling Technician (CST), Earned Value Professional (EVP), Decision & Risk Management Professional (DRMP), Planning & Scheduling Professional (PSP), and technician-level certifications: Certified Cost Technician (CCT) and Certified Scheduling Technician (CST). AACE International is a member of the Board of the Council of Engineering and Scientific Specialty Boards (CESB); AACEs CCP, CCT, CEP, EVP and PSP Certification Programs are fully accredited by the CESB. For more information about AACE International, please visit www.aacei.org.